

Altis at Highland Park

MULTIFAMILY

Altis at Highland Park is a 239-unit, market-rate garden and mixed-use apartment community in Tampa, Florida, developed at 24 units per acre in the Highland Park/Westchase submarket. The wood-frame project combines studio through three-bedroom residences with 5,000 square feet of integrated first-floor commercial space, creating a more activated neighborhood-facing product.

Standout amenities include a resort-inspired pool, 24-hour fitness center, and coworking space, representing a broader resident offering that strengthens leasing appeal and mixed-use market positioning
