

Integra Heights - Model

MULTIFAMILY

The Model at Integra Heights presents a market-rate model merchandising strategy in Clermont, Florida, using a clean contemporary base, coastal-inspired color accents, and layered furnishings to create an approachable yet elevated in-unit experience.

Standout spaces include the living room with work niche, the bedroom's calm but graphic palette, and the kitchen's contrasting cabinetry and island seating, representing a broader styling approach that helps communicate comfort, flexibility, and finish quality during leasing.
